

TRINITY PLAYSPLACE

MEMBERS HANDBOOK & CODE OF CONDUCT

A private members' club benefits from having a clear consent culture, transparent expectations, and procedures that prioritize autonomy, dignity, and safety. The strongest clubs tend to focus on informed consent, communication, confidentiality, inclusivity, and accountability rather than attempting to police every interaction.

Here's a draft membership handbook suitable for a venue inspired by Gate Club, Subversion, and Sweet Torments, while remaining welcoming, professional, and consent-focused.

WELCOME

Welcome to Trinity Playspace.

Trinity Playspace is a private members club created for adults who share an interest in consensual power exchange, fetish, BDSM, rope, impact play, service, roleplay, and other forms of consensual adult expression.

Our goal is to provide a space where exploration can occur within a culture of respect, consent, discretion, and personal responsibility.

Membership is a privilege, not a right. Every member contributes to the atmosphere and reputation of the club.

OUR CORE VALUES

Everything we do is built upon five principles:

CONSENT	No activity is permitted without informed, enthusiastic, and ongoing consent.
RESPECT	Members treat each other with courtesy regardless of experience level, role, gender, orientation, identity, age, relationship status, or appearance.
DISCRETION	What happens at Trinity stays at Trinity unless explicitly agreed otherwise.
RESPONSIBILITY	Members are responsible for their own actions, limits, and wellbeing.
COMMUNITY	We seek to create a welcoming environment where people can safely learn, explore, and grow.

CONSENT POLICY

CONSENT IS MANDATORY

Consent must be:

- Freely given
- Specific
- Informed
- Reversible
- Enthusiastic
- Ongoing

Consent may be withdrawn at any time.

No explanation is required.

No means no.

Stop means stop.

A hesitation, uncertainty, silence, or lack of participation should never be interpreted as consent.

NEGOTIATION BEFORE PLAY

Before any scene members should discuss:

- Activities proposed
- Hard limits
- Soft limits
- Health considerations
- Experience level
- Safewords
- Aftercare expectations

Assumptions are not acceptable.

TOUCHING POLICY

Unless invited:

- Do not touch another member.
- Do not touch another member's equipment.
- Do not enter a scene.
- Do not photograph anyone.

Always ask first.

OBSERVING SCENES

Members are welcome to observe scenes respectfully.

Observers must:

- Maintain distance.
- Avoid interrupting.
- Avoid commentary.
- Respect requests for privacy.

If a scene appears to require assistance, contact a host or dungeon monitor.

SAFESWORDS

The club recommends the traffic-light system.

Green:

Continue.

Amber:

Slow down, check in, adjust.

Red:

Stop immediately.

Where speech is restricted, alternative non-verbal signals must be agreed beforehand.

Failure to respect a safeword is considered a serious breach of club rules.

PERSONAL RESPONSIBILITY

Members are responsible for:

- Understanding their limits.
- Managing their own wellbeing.
- Seeking clarification when unsure.
- Using equipment appropriately.
- Practising good risk awareness.

The club encourages members to continually educate themselves regarding safer play practices.

ALCOHOL AND INTOXICATION

Consent requires capacity.

Anyone who appears significantly intoxicated may be prevented from:

- Playing
- Negotiating scenes
- Participating in activities

The decision of hosts or dungeon monitors is final.

CONFIDENTIALITY & PRIVACY

Many members value discretion.

Members agree:

- Not to disclose personal information.
- Not to identify members publicly without permission.
- Not to share photographs without consent.
- Not to discuss another member's participation outside the club without permission.

Breaches of confidentiality may result in suspension or termination of membership.
